

Idaho State University Outstanding Engineer 2008 Nominations Sought

Idaho State University (ISU) College of Engineering is accepting nominations for the tenth annual ISU Outstanding Engineer Award. This award will be presented at the 2008 National Engineers Week Banquet, which will be held at the Red Lion Hotel in Pocatello on Thursday, February 21.

Nominations are being sought from the Eastern Idaho engineering community. The nomination packet is included. Selected faculty will review the nomination packets for completeness.

A selection committee comprised of ISU engineering student leaders, faculty, alumni, and past recipients, will select the person to be honored at this year's banquet. The person(s) selected for the award should have demonstrated sustained exemplary service in his/her engineering career, a portion of which must have been in the State of Idaho. The criteria to be used by the selection committee are included.

Nomination packets should be received by Friday, February 8, 2008. The selection committee will make their decision by Friday, February 15th, and the award will be presented at the banquet on Thursday, February 21st. The honoree and his or her companion will be guests of the College of Engineering at the banquet.
